

WarehamWeek

bizMembership in WarehamVillageSoup

WarehamVillageSoup.com is the online counterpart of the Wareham Week newspaper – featuring daily news from Wareham, lots of photos and video, community conversation, and much more.

While anyone can visit and read WarehamVillageSoup free of charge, only members get to participate!

As a “bizMember,” you will receive:

- An “enhanced listing” on our site. Whether it functions as your only website or as a link to your own website, an enhanced listing lets you post photos, general information, videos, and more.
- A banner ad that appears on WarehamVillageSoup, SippicanVillageSoup.com and DartmouthVillageSoup.com in rotation with the banner ads of other bizMembers and orgMembers. If you don’t have an ad, we will build one at no additional cost.
- The ability to post bizOffers and bizBriefs directly to the home page of WarehamVillageSoup, SippicanVillageSoup and DartmouthVillageSoup at any time and as often as you want.
- The periodic publication of bizOffers at the bottom of Page 1 in Wareham Week and bizBriefs on the Wareham Week Business page.
- The ability to post events directly to our online calendar.
- The ability to start and maintain a blog.
- FREE classified ads – online and in Wareham Week.
- A $15 per week discount on print advertising.

The cost is only $275 for three months, payable by check or by going online and using a credit card.
